PIONEER MINING MAN BURIED IN LONE PINE

Samuel Wasson, a pioneer miner of Nevada, died in Lone Pine, Cal., May 30, according to word received by friends. He was over 70 years old and his death was due to old age and shock caused by the death of his wife last winter in Ely.

He was at one time superintendent of the Silver Peak mines and had mining interests in several sections of the state. He leaves four sons: Frank, George, Sam and Eugene. Burial took place this week in Lone Pine.

LLOYD ARRIVES; STARTS TO TRAIN

(By LEFT HOOK)

"Sailor" Charles Lloyd, arrived this morning to start training for his 25 round go with "Lanky" Joe Welch, at the Airdome on the 17th.

The former bluejacket expressed confidence in his ability to cope with Welch. To a group of friends he covered the situation thusly: "I don't see where some of those people get that stuff about me not deserving the decision last time. The referee gave it to me and I got the winner's end of the purse didn't I. What does a fellow have to do to win from another guy—kill him? I don't care if I never win another fight in my life as long as the referee gives me the decision and the promoter forks over the big winner's end. I was leery over the high altitude last time, but is going to be different now. And another thing. If this guy Welch comes tearing at me wide open like he did in our last meeting, well, gee, don't make me laugh. I got a cracked lip. I'll knock him for a goal sure."

"I really can't understand why Welch is insisting on making this a 25-round affair. It seems to me I had him hanging on towards the end of the 20th. Some fighters sure get some crazy notions into their heads. Just watch me when the bell rings. Say, lend me to a good restaurant," concluded the cocky sea-soldier as he stalked out of Blake's.

GERMAN MARK OF LOW VALUE

(Correspondence Associated Press)

TREVES, May 17.—Rates of exchange in German money transactions noted in the mails under American censorship show that the exchange early in May was far from stable.
One report gave the rate in Berlin at 241 marks for 100 francs, while another transaction mentioned in a business letter showed that a Cologne bank paid 229½ marks. The branch of the Reichsbank in Coblenz has been paying only 200, officials of the bank saying that each bank sets its own rate, being governed entirely by other transactions which the bank may have with its correspondents in foreign countries.

Beginning May 1, the United States disbursing office at the army headquarters in Coblenz began paying 222 marks for 100 francs, an increase of 22 marks over the exchange rate which had been in effect several months.

Letters to the United States continue to indicate a desire to re-establish business relations. One firm in the American occupied zone, writing to a watch manufacturing company in the United States, says that Germany will soon be in the market for a great many watches for shipment by parcel post.

Dr. Taylor is now in Tonopah. Offices at the Golden Eagle Hotel.—

IRISHMEN IN FAVOR OF MAKING REPUBLIC

(Correspondence Associated Press)

DUBLIN, May 10.—The net result of the visit to Ireland of three American delegates representing the Irish societies in America apparently has been to convince the American visitors that the great majority of the Irish people desire a republic and nothing else. Another apparent effect has been to convince doubting sections of the Irish people that the establishment of an Irish republic is practical.

The American visitors dealt with De Valera as though he were a real president and when Frank Walsh, one of the Americans, announced that he had reason to expect that a "safe conduct" would be granted to enable De Valera and Count Minkett to go to the peace conference, the Sinn Feiners were jubilant.

The Unionists passed resolutions and set all the wires working to break any possible relation between Premier Lloyd George and the Irish publicans.

The attitude of the government authorities while the delegation was in Ireland was regarded as significant. There is a stringent military order forbidding processions and public meetings without a permit and before the arrival of the Americans here had been numerous prosecutions and sentences both in Dublin and throughout the country punishing men for unauthorized meetings and for "forming fairs" in procession.

Yet there was not the slightest interference with the huge processions organized in Cork and Dublin on the delegates, or any attempt to prevent either them or the Sinn Fein-er leaders whose guests they were from addressing mass meetings of hundreds who crowded into the fashionable square in Dublin in which the delegates had their residence.
The lord lieutenant and the chief secretary were said to be dissatisfied and helpless.

All this has made a deep impression in Ireland with the result that very many people who a few weeks ago thought an Irish republic was either a pretense or a dream have come to think it a possibility. They still look eagerly for the fulfillment of the expectations aroused. If they are not realized, and experienced politicians do not see how they can be, the disappointment is likely to be very great.

Home rule as a policy is openly scorned. Professor John MacNeill, Sinn Fein member of parliament for the National University as well as for Derry city in a speech delivered on Thursday boasted that the Sinn Fein party had killed the home rule act. It is asserted that the American visit has greatly stiffened the attitude and given substance to the demand for a separate republic.

PROMINENT ELKO RANCHER IS DEAD

William A. Johnson, prominent and wealthy rancher and cattleman of Elko county, died suddenly Thursday at his home in Clover Valley, according to the Wells Herald. Death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Johnson was one of the most prominent ranchers of Elko county and was also engaged in mining. He had been a resident of Clover Valley for many years.

His widow is in a hospital in Reno where she has been for several days, having undergone a serious operation.
A son, Leslie Johnson, who graduated from the university in 1916, is well known in Reno. The son's wife is the daughter of Judge and Mrs.
C. E. Mack.

The new building is to cost about $200,000, and is to be four or possibly five stories high, with an exterior of pressed brick.
